Announcing the 2021 Heritage Center Gala

Join us this year as we honor the past and prepare for the future.

T.G. Sheppard

T. Graham Brown

This year the Great Smoky Mountains Heritage Center is proud to celebrate its 15th year and will be hosting an in-person “Heritage Happening Gala” at the Hilton Knoxville Airport on the evening of Saturday, May 15, 2021, 5:00pm – 9:30pm. The evening will include dinner, on-line silent and live auction items for bidding, dancing, living history interpreters, photo opportunities, and live entertainment from the legendary T.G. Sheppard and T. Graham Brown.

- Event tickets are $150 per person, ($90 tax deductible)
- Guests may go online to purchase tickets at www.auctria.com/auction/HH2021
- Or simply call the GSMHC at 865-448-0044 to register by phone

Safety is our Priority: The staff of the Hilton Knoxville Airport, the Heritage Happenings Gala staff, and volunteers will make guest safety a top priority. We will perform temperature checks on all attendees and staff. Masks will be required in all common areas like hallways, dining areas, rest rooms, lobby, dance floor, and bus transportation.

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Thanks to our Heritage Gala Sponsors

I know I speak for the entire staff when I say how much we appreciate the continued support of our sponsors. Your generosity has a great impact on our community. Thanks to you, the Heritage Center's future is bright as we continue to build our educational programming for children, teachers, and visitors. We take great pride in preserving, interpreting, and sharing the rich cultural heritage of the Great Smoky Mountains.

HISTORY ON DISPLAY

WE'VE GOT CABIN FEVER

The Heritage Center saves Historic Cabins of the Smokies

The GSM Heritage Center promotes the preservation of Appalachian historical buildings.

When appropriate, we have experts who can move and reassemble structures on the Heritage Center site where our visitors and patrons can connect with the spirit and history of these priceless artifacts.

The Heritage Center has recently acquired, disassembled and safely stored two historical appalachian cabins.

DAVIS FAMILY CABIN

The Davis Cabin is circa 1820 from Seymour TN. Owned by the same family on its original site until donation to GSMHC. Currently stored at GSMHC while awaiting reassembly.

KELLER CABIN

The cabin is the original homeplace of Samuel Keller, who was probably the best known and most prolific gunsmith in this area. Currently stored at GSMHC while awaiting reassembly.

Stay tuned for exciting news on the future use of these valuable heirlooms.

▲ THE DAVIS CABIN PRIOR TO DISASSEMBLY AND STORAGE.

▼ We are raising funds to pay for moving the Davis Cabin to the Heritage Center. If you donate $75 or more you will receive a tee shirt that celebrates your contribution to the effort.

HISTORY ON DISPLAY: STORY BY TREVOR LANIER

The Immeasurable Beauty of a Special Gift

It's always special when someone donates an artifact to the Heritage Center, but we were taken aback and especially excited to receive a nearly-200-year-old loom coming directly from the original owner's family, right out of the log home where it resided for almost two centuries.

THIS LOOM, AND THE CABIN WHERE IT FIRST STOOD, ARE SILENT WITNESSES TO THE CHEROKEE REMOVAL AND THE INFLUX OF EUROPEAN SETTLERS WHO FOLLOWED, THE RENDING OF THE UNION DURING THE CIVIL WAR, THE REFORGING OF THE UNION, AND THE END OF WORLD WARS I AND II.

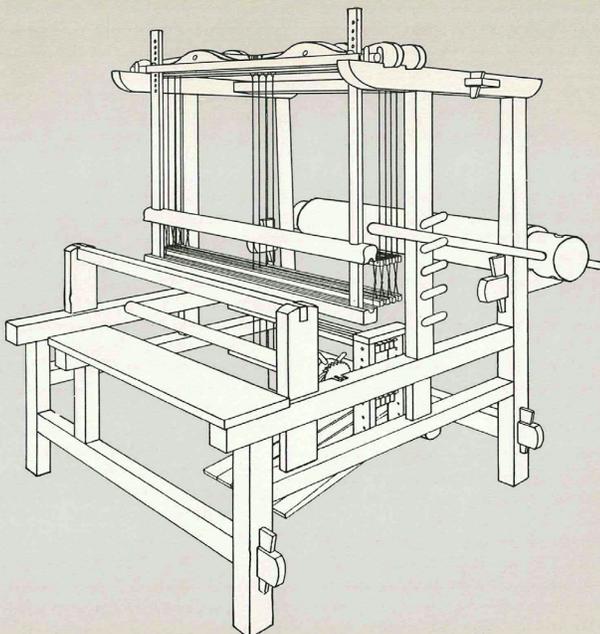

Fig. 265

THE OWNER SHOWED US THE ORIGINAL CABIN BUILT IN THE EARLY 19TH CENTURY, AND THE FIELD NEXT TO IT WHERE HE WAS PLOWING WITH A TEAM OF MULES WHEN HE HEARD THAT WORLD WAR II HAD ENDED.

This counter-march loom came to us from a local family who still reside on their ancestral farm, which has been handed down from the original owners since the land was granted to them from the U.S. Government in the 1830s.

Artifacts like this give us opportunities to time travel, and to listen thoughtfully to the stories they tell.

These stories may be difficult or hopeful, tragic or joyful, but they are always important, and we are thankful to have such considerate donors who want to share these stories with others.
